UNSIGNED DRAFT

WHAT STILL NEEDS A PERSON

MORT-01 · $14,212.50: Northgate Savings Bank sent no 2025 Form 1098 for the loan paid off in the June 20 refinance. The draft deducts $14,212.50 of January to June interest from the payoff and monthly statements on Schedule A line 8a. A person obtains the Form 1098 (or the lender's online copy) and confirms the amount; the debt itself qualifies: $598,400.00 refinanced with no cash out, under $750,000.

EST-01 · $2,000.00: The clients' log shows four 2025 estimated payments, $8,000.00; their IRS account credits three, $6,000.00, and shows the January 15, 2026 payment (DP 2026-0115-68203) under tax year 2026. The draft claims $6,000.00 on line 26. A person asks the IRS to move it to 2025 (or the clients confirm it was meant for 2026); if moved, the refund rises from $4,669.02 to $6,669.02. No penalty either way.

CHAR-01 · $2,500.00: The September 22, 2025 gift of $2,500.00 to Anytown Children's Hospital Foundation has no contemporaneous written acknowledgment yet, so the draft leaves it out of Schedule A line 11. With the letter in hand before filing, line 11 rises by $2,500.00 and the tax falls by about $550.00 at the 22% rate.

RETURN-01 · $4,669.02: Unsigned draft. The return is due April 15, 2026; both spouses sign. Additional Medicare Tax of $162.00 was not withheld and is paid with the return; a Form W-4 change avoids it next year. The $30,000.00 HANGS bonus paid January 9, 2026 belongs on the 2026 return. Resolve MORT-01, EST-01 and CHAR-01 first; nothing has been filed. Washington has no state income tax return.

This PDF is an unsigned draft in the return's lines. It is not the official Form 1040, and it has not been reviewed or filed.
