Cinderbrook Bank

SUPPLEMENTARY REPLY

Treasury Services · 400 Market Street Plaza, Anytown, WA 00000

Answers to the audit team's further questions · July 27, 2026

Customer:	HANGS Construction Services LLC
In reply to:	The request of July 14, 2026
Reply sent directly to:	The audit team, attest@finance-demo.example

1. Service charges, July 1, 2025 to June 30, 2026

Operating account ending 4471: none. Payroll account ending 6158: one charge on the last business day of each month, the $125.00 account analysis fee and $95.00 for each same-day payroll file:

July 31, 2025	2 payroll files	$315.00
August 29, 2025	2 payroll files	$315.00
September 30, 2025	2 payroll files	$315.00
October 31, 2025	3 payroll files	$410.00
November 28, 2025	2 payroll files	$315.00
December 31, 2025	2 payroll files	$315.00
January 30, 2026	2 payroll files	$315.00
February 27, 2026	2 payroll files	$315.00
March 31, 2026	2 payroll files	$315.00
April 30, 2026	2 payroll files	$315.00
May 29, 2026	3 payroll files	$410.00
June 30, 2026	3 payroll files	$410.00
Total		$4,065.00

2. Check 21561

Check 21561, amount:	$21,850.80
Check 21561, dated:	December 18, 2025
Check 21561, status at July 27, 2026:	Not presented
Check 21561, stop payment:	None on file

3. Stale checks

The bank may decline to pay a check presented more than 180 days after its date.

4. Holds, liens, pledges, set-off and compensating balances

None on either account at June 30, 2026 or since. No balance is required to be kept on deposit under the loan agreement. The bank has the usual right of set-off only on a default; there was none.

Priscilla Varga, Assistant Vice President, Treasury Services, July 27, 2026

Demonstration document. Not a real bank record. Every name and figure is invented.