---

Notice: CP207. Notice date: 2026-10-26.

Employer identification number: XX-XXX7890.

Tax form: 941. Tax period: June 30, 2026.

What the notice says: the record of federal tax liability with the return is missing or incorrect.

Our records show you are a semiweekly schedule depositor. Your return showed monthly liabilities on line 16 and no Schedule B (Form 941).

What you need to do: complete a new record of federal tax liability and mail it to the address on the notice within 45 days of the date of this notice.

Figures on the notice

Total tax on the return (line 12)	$868,745.69
Deposits for the quarter	$868,745.69
Liability shown for month 1 (April)	$248,168.06
Liability shown for month 2 (May)	$370,502.68
Liability shown for month 3 (June)	$250,074.95
Proposed averaged failure-to-deposit penalty	$4,534.32

If we do not receive your reply, we will figure the penalty by averaging the total tax liability across the tax period and applying your deposits to the averaged liabilities in the order we received them.

If you believe you had reasonable cause for a late deposit, include a statement signed under penalty of perjury.

Reply address: the address at the top of the paper notice (kept in the tax file).
